SP&R Non-federal Match Waivers for AASHTO Technical Service Programs
As of June 1, 2021

Programs Approved by FHWA for Match Waiver

- AASHTO Rail Resource Center, ARRC (2018)
- AASHTO re:source (formerly AASHTO Materials Reference Laboratory, AMRL) (2012)
- AASHTOWare software development projects (not the licensing of AASHTOWare products):
  - AASHTOWare Construction and Materials Management System (2019)
  - AASHTOWare Project Data Analysis (2018)
  - AASHTOWare Project Estimator (2012)
- Census Transportation Planning Program, CTPP (2013)
- Design Publications Maintenance, DPM (2017)
- Environmental Technical Assistance Program, ETAP (2010)
- Equipment Management Technical Service Program, EMTSP (formerly AETO) (2009)
- Highway Safety Policy and Management, SAFETY (2009)
- LRFD Specifications Maintenance (2009)
- Materials Specifications, DAMS (2009)
- Multi-State Transit Technical Assistance Program, MTAP (2017)
- National Transportation Product Evaluation Program, NTPEP (2009), including UP³ (formerly the AASHTO Product Evaluation List, APEL (2009))
- Operations Technical Service Program, including the National Operations Center of Excellence, NOCoE (2014)
- Resilient and Sustainable Transportation Systems, RSTS (formerly STEICS, formerly Climate Change) (2010)
- Snow and Ice Cooperative Program, SICOP (2009)
- Transportation Curriculum Coordination Council, TC3 (2014)
- Transportation Performance Management (TPM) Technical Service Program (2021)
- Transportation System Preservation Technical Service Program, TSP2 (2008)

Programs Disallowed

- TRAC (Transportation and Civil Engineering) / RIDES (Roadways into Developing Elementary Students)
  - Note: TRAC/RIDES may be eligible for federal On-the-Job Training (OJT) funds